

2010 SMALL RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM
FAIR MARKET RENTAL RATES AND INCOME LIMITS

These rates and income limits are in effect beginning July 1, 2010, and they will remain in effect until MDA releases new rates. Landlords must use these income limits and may not charge rents in excess of the listed rates for all leases which are entered into beginning on July 1, 2010.

These rates are the maximum rents that can be charged for this HUD assisted program. Landlords may charge lower rates. It is the responsibility of the landlords to market the property so that they can attract renters to their property even if it means reducing the rental rate. If a landlord is not able to find a renter at their preferred rate and the landlord fails to lower their rates in an effort to attract renters, they may be disqualified from the program and face loan default.

The table below shows 2010 Small Rental Assistance Program rental rates for tenants with incomes at or below 80% and 120% of the AMI. Please be aware that these rental rates may be subject to a downward or upward revision on a yearly basis depending on various factors.

The table below shows 2010 Neighborhood Rental Restoration Project rental rates for tenants with incomes at or below 50% of the AMI. Please be aware that these rental rates may be subject to a downward or upward revision on a yearly basis depending on various factors.

Rental Rate Limits by County (50% AMI)
	One-Bedroom	Two-Bedroom	Three or More Bedrooms
Harrison/Hancock 50% AMI	$ 364	$ 425	$ 553
Jackson 50% AMI	$ 337	$ 404	$ 557

Utility Allowances by Unit Size
The rental rates listed above assume that landlords will pay utilities on behalf of their tenants. Utilities include electricity, water/sewer, garbage pickup, and natural gas (if applicable). If tenants are required to pay any of their own utilities, the landlord must subtract the following utility allowances from the rent charged.
